Polson's 14th Annual FLIC Film Festival – February 13-15, 2026

Valentine's Day weekend is just around the corner. If you're looking for something to do with your sweetheart, how about venturing out to an international film festival? Cozy theaters, sweet 'n savory snacks, new friends, and exceptional independent films are all in the offing when the Flathead Lake International Cinemafest (FLIC) celebrates its 14th winter film festival during the weekend of February 13-15, 2026 at the Showboat Stadium 6, 416 Main Street, Polson, Montana.

FLIC features a wide variety of full-length narrative and documentary features, shorts, animation, and student films. FLIC 2026 once again offers a diverse slate of domestic and international films, featuring a record number of entries from 23 countries as well as many homegrown Montana films.

Many filmmakers plan to make the trek to Polson to participate in the festival in person. FLIC has become a destination film festival, known for its enthusiastic audience that supports independent cinema. Spirited discussions between FLIC attendees and filmmakers follow most screening blocks, and friendships form at social mixers as film lovers from across the globe converge in Polson to connect over their mutual love of independent cinema.

Producer/Director Kathy Kuras reviewed FLIC after attending:

"The FLIC festival is an incredibly special experience. We can't say enough about how welcoming the people of Polson are to filmmakers. It was a true community experience...After 25 plus festivals over 18 months, FLIC stands out as our best overall experience."
